Pawnee City High School

Pawnee City, Nebraska

Hello, there!
Welcome to 1973.
Within these pages
are the memories of a great year.
In a decade or two look back,
relive the good times.
Walk the halls of PCHS and remember.
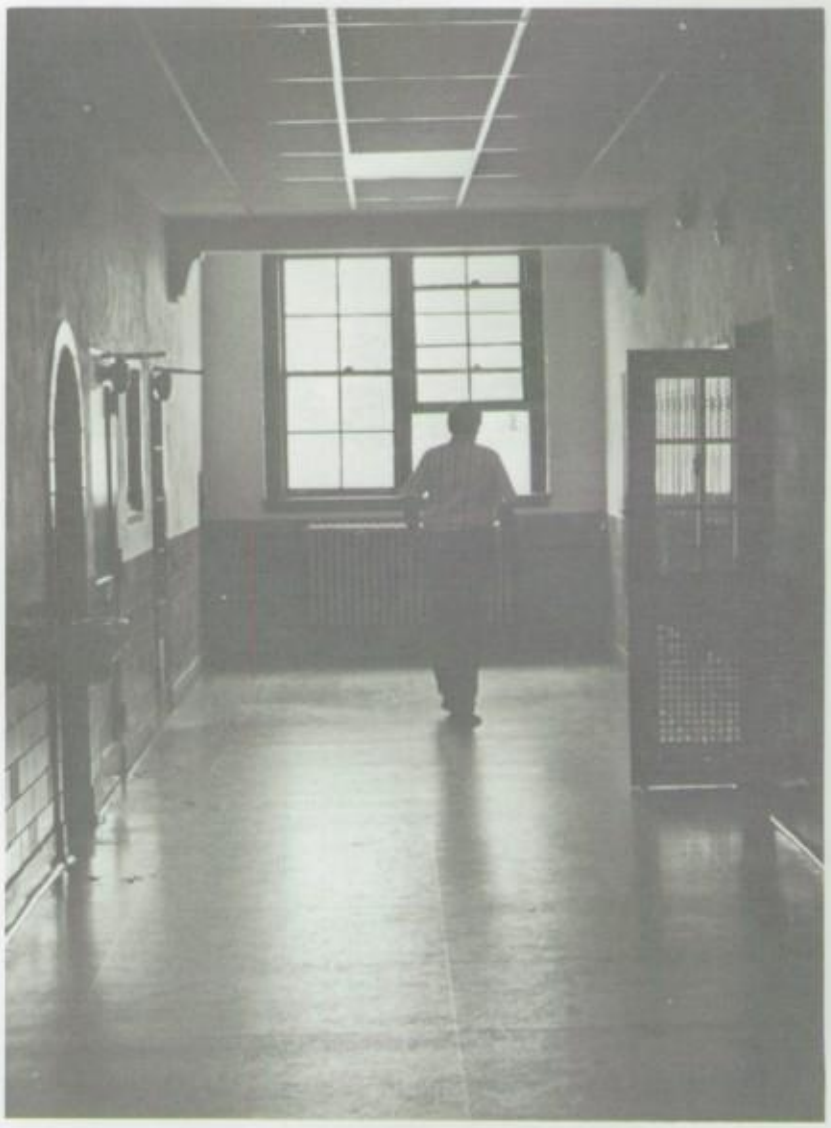
Remember.....
pep rallies, parties,
pizza, and friends...



Remember
snowy winters, study halls,
ball games, and bus rides,
Budding spring and young love.
Look through these pages with pride.
For you,
by being unique and giving life
to the school, have helped to write them.
Within these pages
is a part of you.

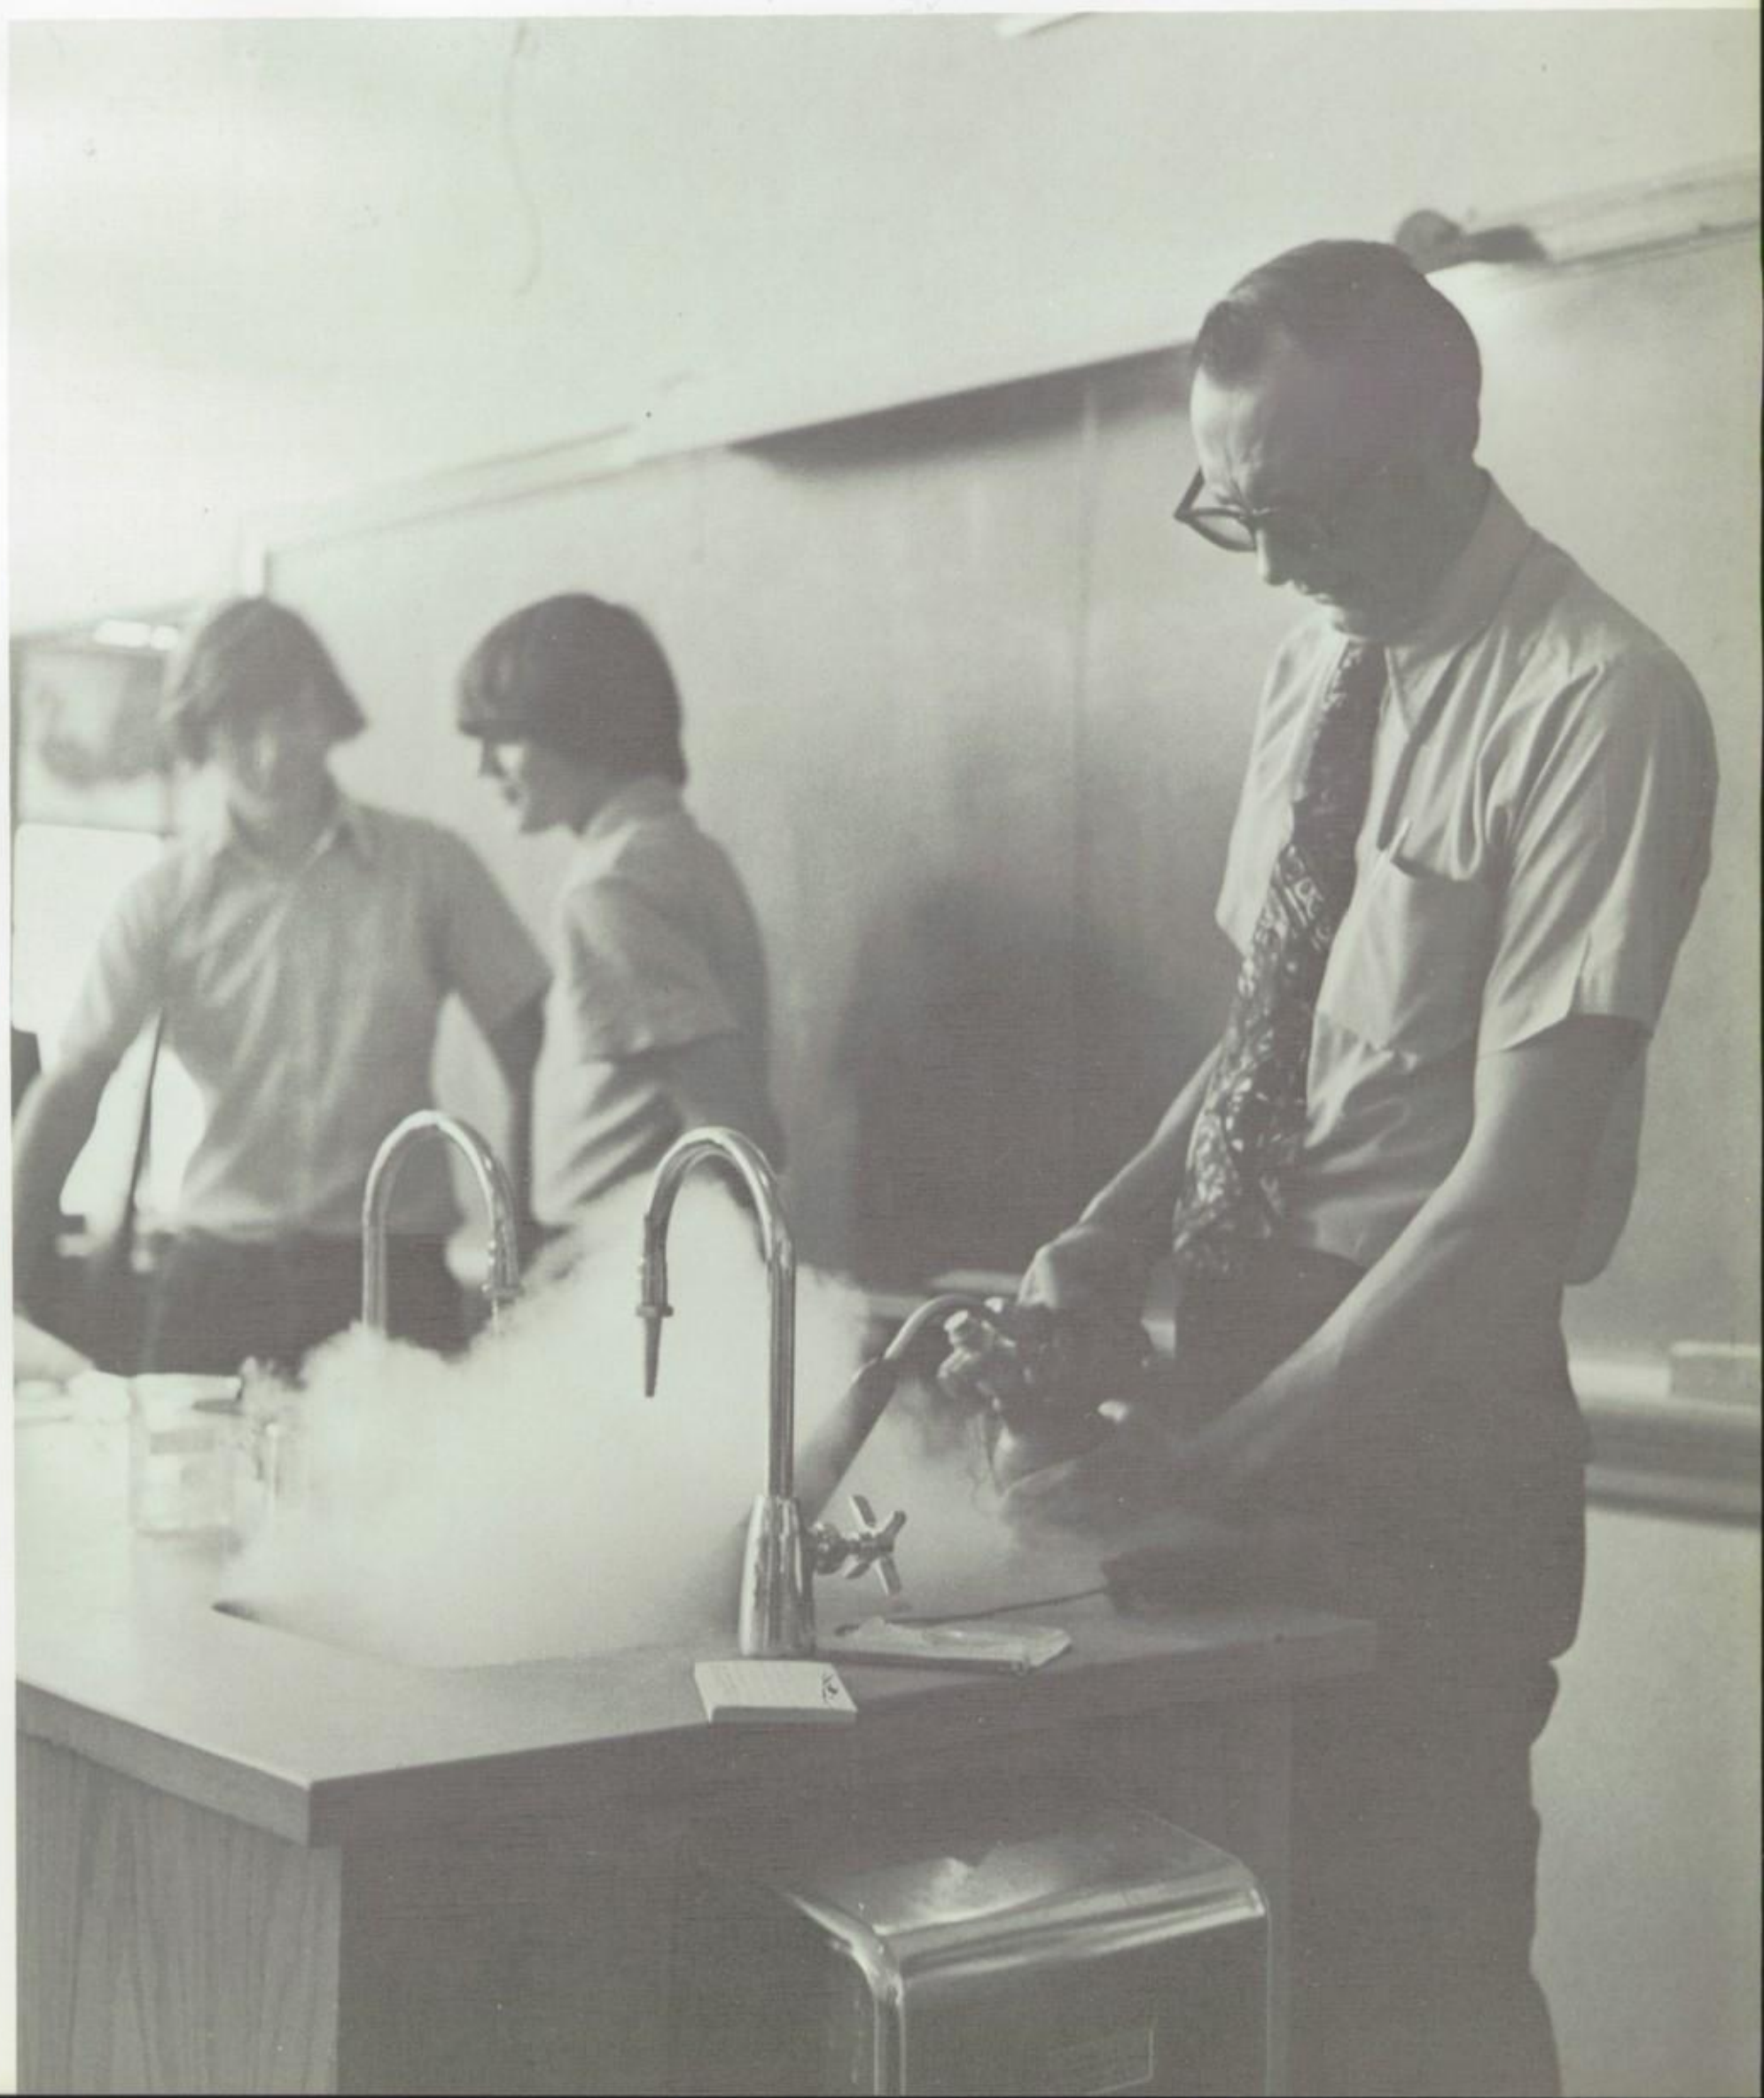
FACULTY



School Board

The school board undertook the repair of the school this year. Among other things, the roof was fixed and a suspended ceiling was installed on the second floor.

Much midnight oil was burned in the library as the school board acted on important matters facing them.

COLWELL DRUG COMPANY

Administration

Mr. Max Martin has been principal at PCHS for two years. He also sponsored the senior class and taught freshman English.

Mr. James Robison completed his fourth successful year as superintendent of PCHS.

Secretary Mrs. Georgia Martin has kept the office running smoothly for fourteen years.

Faculty

In her sixth year at Pawnee City, Mrs. Harriet Dokken taught sophomore and senior English and served as sponsor for the Drama Club.

Mrs. Helen Johnson taught German I and II and sophomore English during her fifth year at Pawnee City.

Guidance counselor Mr. Garry Klein taught freshman and junior English, coached golf, and was assistant basketball coach in his fourth year at PCHS.

At a fondue party for the German II class, Mrs. Johnson and Julie Dageford prove that, contrary to popular opinion, German is not all hard work.

PERKINS' INSURANCE AGENCY

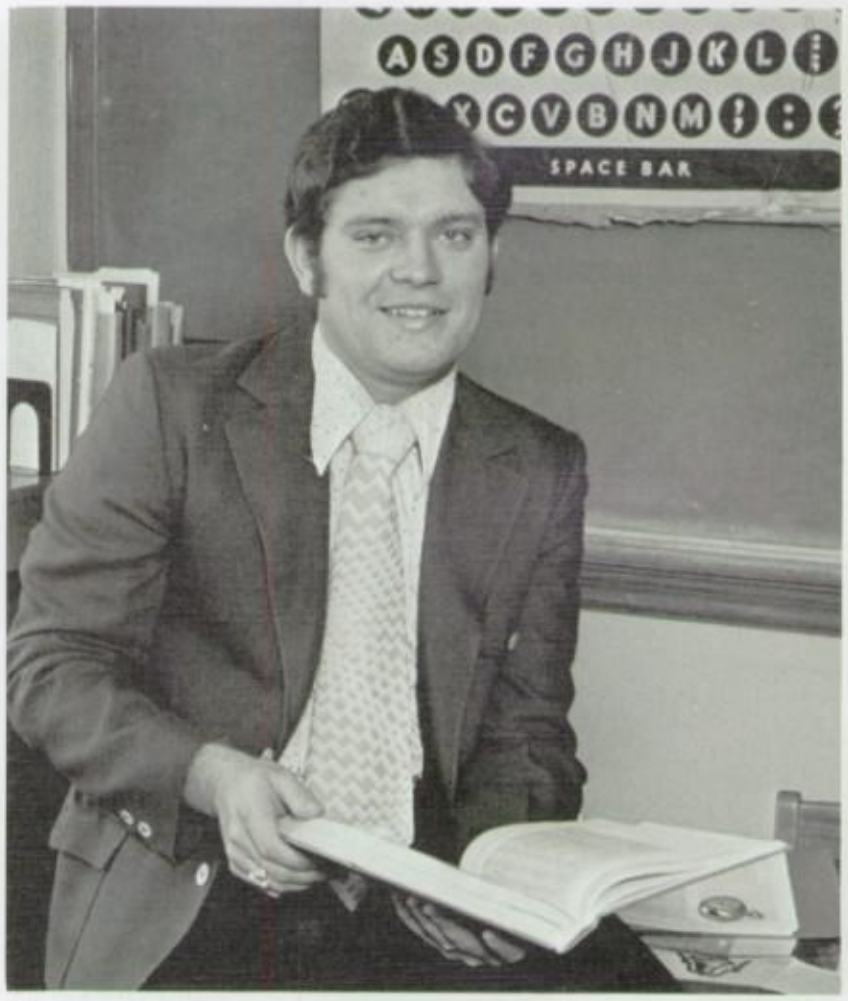
Mrs. Elizabeth Martin spent her third year at PCHS teaching art, speech and journalism, and seventh grade English and co-sponsoring the junior class.

The band was directed by Mr. Bob Patterson who also gave instrumental music lessons during his first year at PCHS.

Mrs. Margaret Hecht instructed grade school, junior high, and high school vocal music during her third year at PCHS.

Faculty

A smile is rare when adding those long columns of numbers, but more and more students are finding that commercial courses, like accounting, prepare them well for today's world.

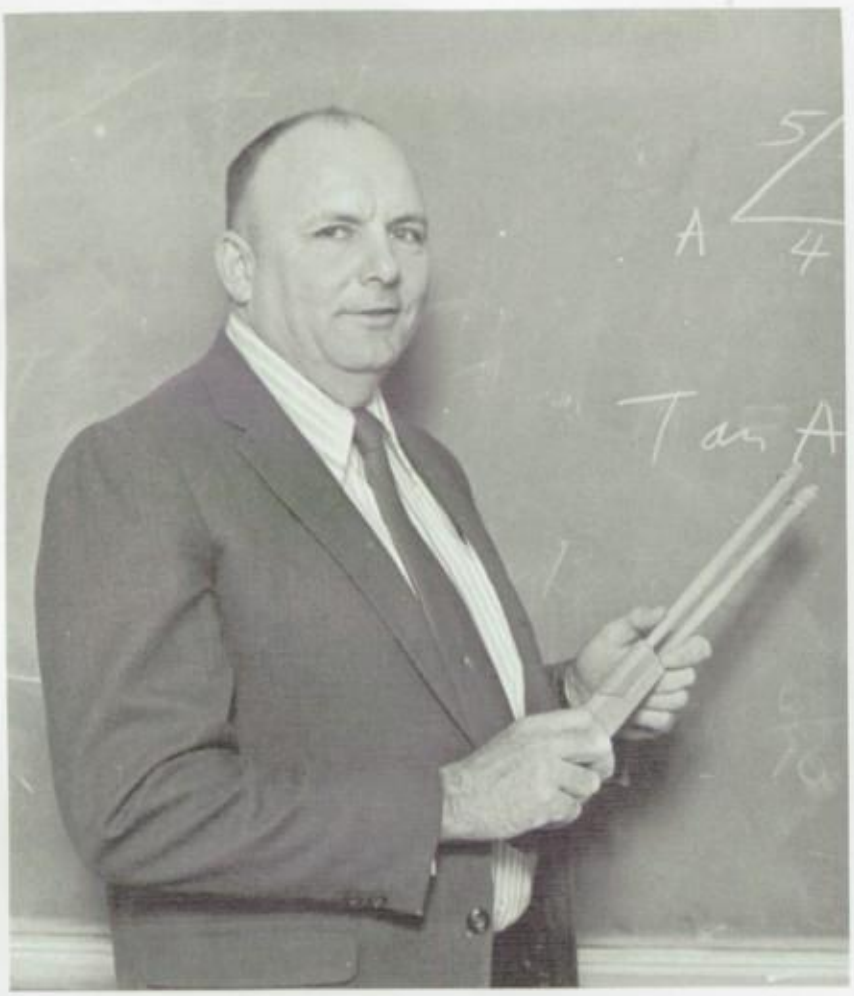


During his fourth year at PCHS, Mr. Bruce Haughton taught commercial courses, sponsored the freshman class, and was advisor of the annual staff.

In her first year at PCHS, Mrs. Barbara Knipe instructed the vocational homemaking and senior modern problems classes and sponsored the FHA.

Tradition was broken and for the first time, boys took home ec and girls took ag. Senior Roy Oenbring gets a taste of being a father with Robbie Patterson in child development class.

KAREN'S BEAUTY SALON



The seventh grade sponsor, Mr. LaVon Covault, coached junior high sports and taught junior high math and freshman general math during his fourth year at PCHS.

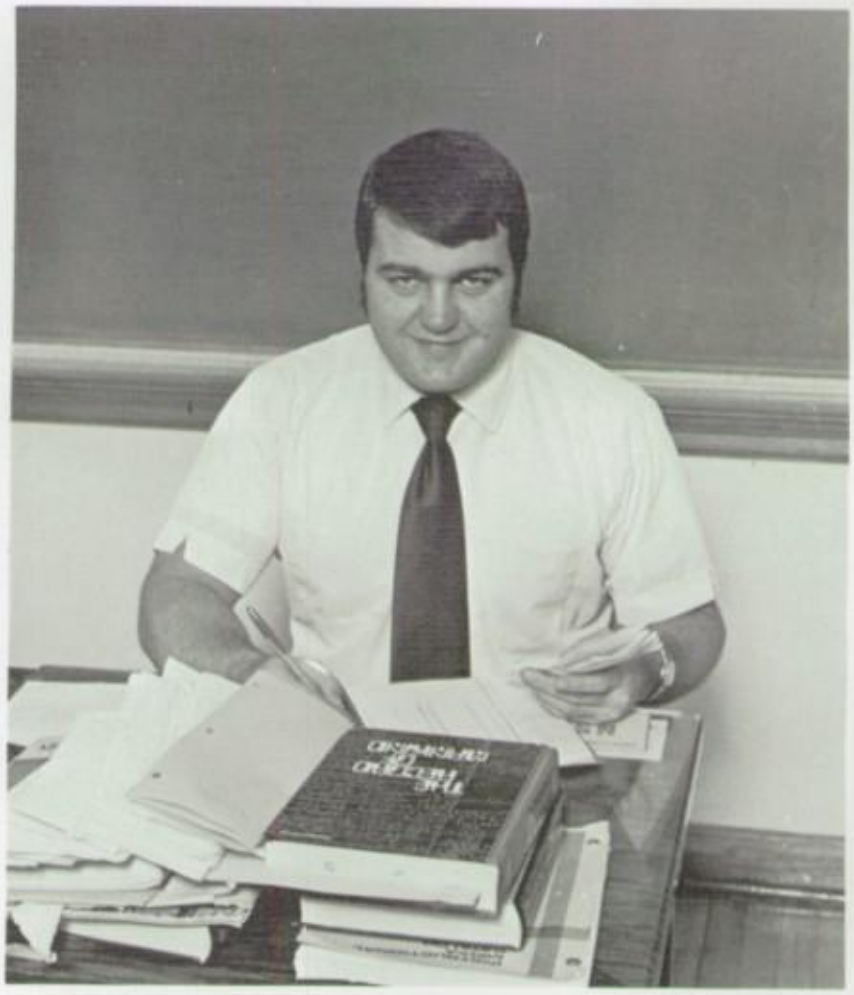
The 6th period ag class is shown constructing the "Pigs 'n Posies" building. The structure houses restrooms, a hog house, a greenhouse, and storage facilities.

Mrs. Donna Puls has completed eight years of teaching junior high social studies and science and sponsoring the eighth grade at PCHS.

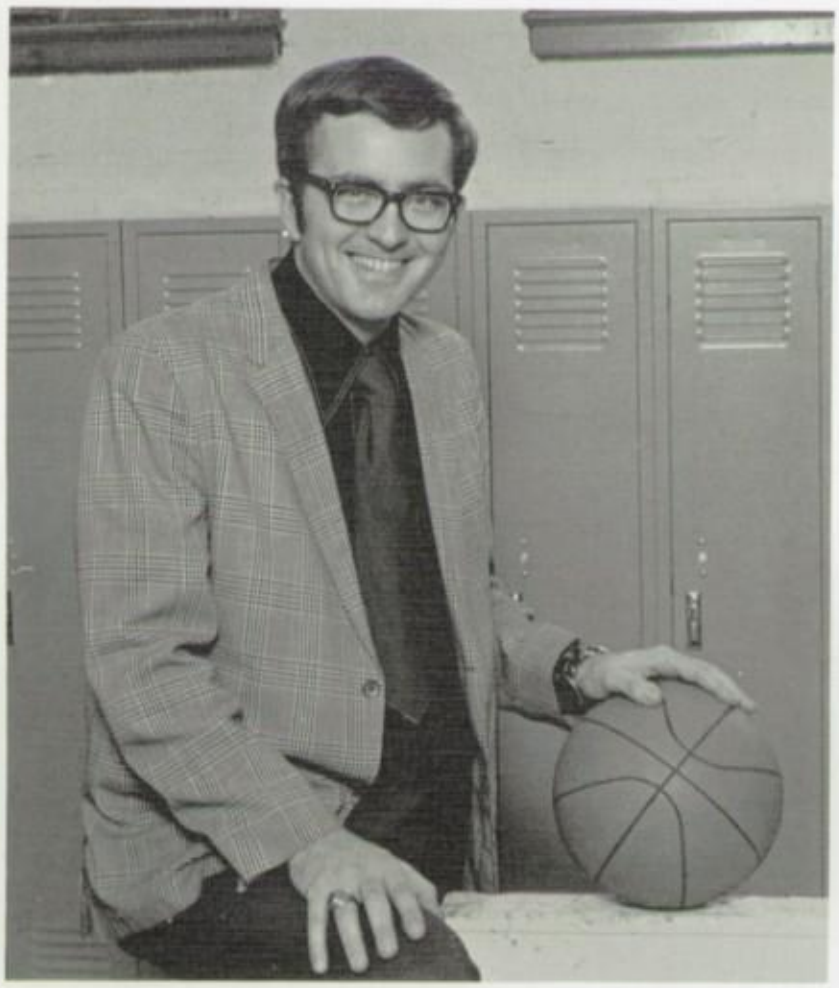
In his twenty-second year at PCHS, Mr. Ronald Ganzel was the vocational agriculture instructor and sponsored the Pawnee City chapter of the FFA.

Faculty

Mr. Gary Bedea's fourth year at Pawnee City was filled with teaching American history, biology, and world history.



Mr. Larry Brown taught world history and physical education and served as head football and track coach in his fifth year at PCHS.



Mr. Larry Ribble was head basketball coach, assistant football coach, and girls' track coach in his fourth year here. He also taught civics, American government, health, and physical education.

Judge Colwell helped the government class learn their rights under laws concerning search and seizure.

PAWNEE COUNTY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Mr. Terry Harlow, who was the sophomore class sponsor, taught geometry, algebra I and II, trigonometry, and drivers' training in his sixth year at PCHS.

Our antiquated lab was replaced by totally new science facilities, much to the joy of Mr. Wenninghoff. The junior chemistry students made good use of it.

Creighton Math Field Day contestants and their events were: Leap-Frog Relay—Howard Borcher and Charlie Luedders, Priscilla Mort and Joyce Thiemann; Mad Hatter Marathon A—Bill Latza, Jeanne Farwell; Mad Hatter Marathon B—Bob Karas, Susan Warnke.

Physical science, chemistry, and physics were taught by Mr. Ron Wenninghoff who also co-sponsored the junior class during his third year at PCHS.

Faculty

Mrs. Elsie Bartram has taught the high school special education classes at Pawnee City for four years.

Mrs. Bonnie Robison has completed four years as our school librarian.

The elementary teachers' aides were Mrs. Jody Schultz and Mrs. Eileen Johnson. They also performed such tasks as monitoring the halls and taking lunch tickets.

The elementary special education teachers were Mrs. Virginia Chittick, Mrs. Louise Griffith, Mrs. Betty Spitser, Mrs. Dora Louise Wissler, (not shown) Mrs. Leota Uhri.

PAWNEE COUNTY BANK
Member-FDIC

The "big wheels" of the Pep Club were Sue Chittick, Sec.; Julie Torczon, V-Pres.; Marie Warnke, Pres.; Deb Yoble, Treas.

"Ooh Angowa, A-Indian Power. I say, Ooh Angowa, A-Indian Power. I say, one Angowa, two Angowa, gimme some of that Indian Power!"

Sound familiar? It's the sound of this year's Pep Club. New chants and yells, new outfits, and a new constitution brought fresh enthusiasm to the organization. Money-makers consisted of running a concession stand during basketball season and selling holly at Christmas time.

CITY OF PAWNEE CITY
Theatre and swimming pool

Varsity cheerleaders Sandy Lockard, Mary Richardson, Patty Boehmer, Jean Kline, Nancy Rowland, and Marcia Karas displayed many new formations throughout the year.

Leading the cheers for the reserve teams were sophomores Leora Howard, Gera Perkins, Debbie Schilling, Marianne Stephens, and Beth Kerl.

FFA

The FFA was again under the guidance of Mr. Ganzel this year. Several members enjoyed a summer canoe trip down the Big Blue River. School year activities included hosting an FFA-FHA hayrack ride, attending the Kansas City Machinery Show and Tractor Pull in February, and the annual chicken barbeque in April with special guests Larry Rasmussen, state FFA president, and William Gingery, state FFA advisor. A concession stand at football games and a fruit sale provided funds for the year's activitites.

Foundation Proficiency Awards went to Ron Graham for farm mechanics and to Randy Niss for electrification. Both placed second.

The team of Mark Turnbull, Randy Niss, and Roy Oenbring placed second at the state in a new contest, ag mechanics.

The ag demonstration team of Terry Kerl and Phil Johnson placed fourth at state. They demonstrated the laying of blocks, a skill they aquired while working on the new building.

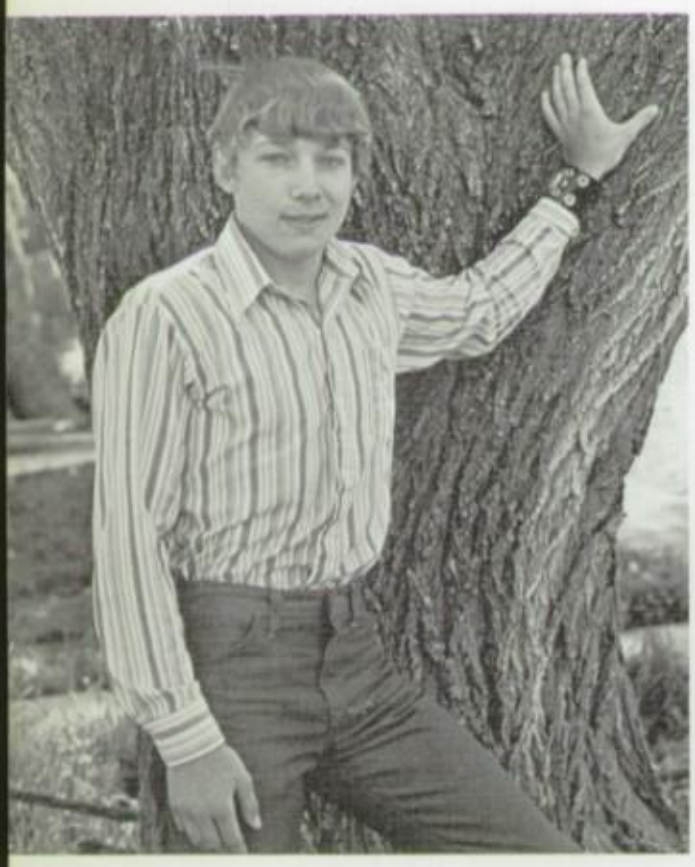
Terry Kerl, Ron Graham, Ed Sunneberg, and LaWayne Mach comprised the soil judging team that won third place at the state contest.

FFA

Mary Richardson, one of the first girls to enroll in an ag class and chosen FFA Sweetheart, receives a rose from Joel Perdew as former Sweetheart Marie Warnke looks on.

Grade B dairyman and farmer LaWayne Mach, winner of the DeKalb Award, attained the rank of State Farmer.

Wildlife speaker Ron Graham garnered a red at district. He and Roy Oenbring were on the farm management team that placed first at state.



Star Greenhand Ray Shinn placed third at the district creed speaking contest.

Don Shinn placed third in the district extemporaneous speaking contest.

Randy Niss's speech placed third at the district public speaking contest. Randy was also the Star Chapter Farmer.

FHA

Our new sponsor, Mrs. Knipe, brought fresh ideas to be blended with old traditions this year in FHA. An old-fashioned summer picnic preceeded the school year's activities which included bake sales, a sweater sale, and a surprise Senior Send-off tea. Highlights of the year were the Winter Royalty Ball, family night, and the FFA-FHA hayrack ride.

Visiting the Asst. Degree Chm., P. Boehmer, in the hospital are the other officers: FRONT ROW: F. Rohlmeier, Song Leader; N. Bloss, V-Pres.; M. Stephens, Treas.; J. Conradt, Historian; J. Kline, Rec. "Ted Mack's Terrible Trio" began their rise to stardom at pumpkin caroling.

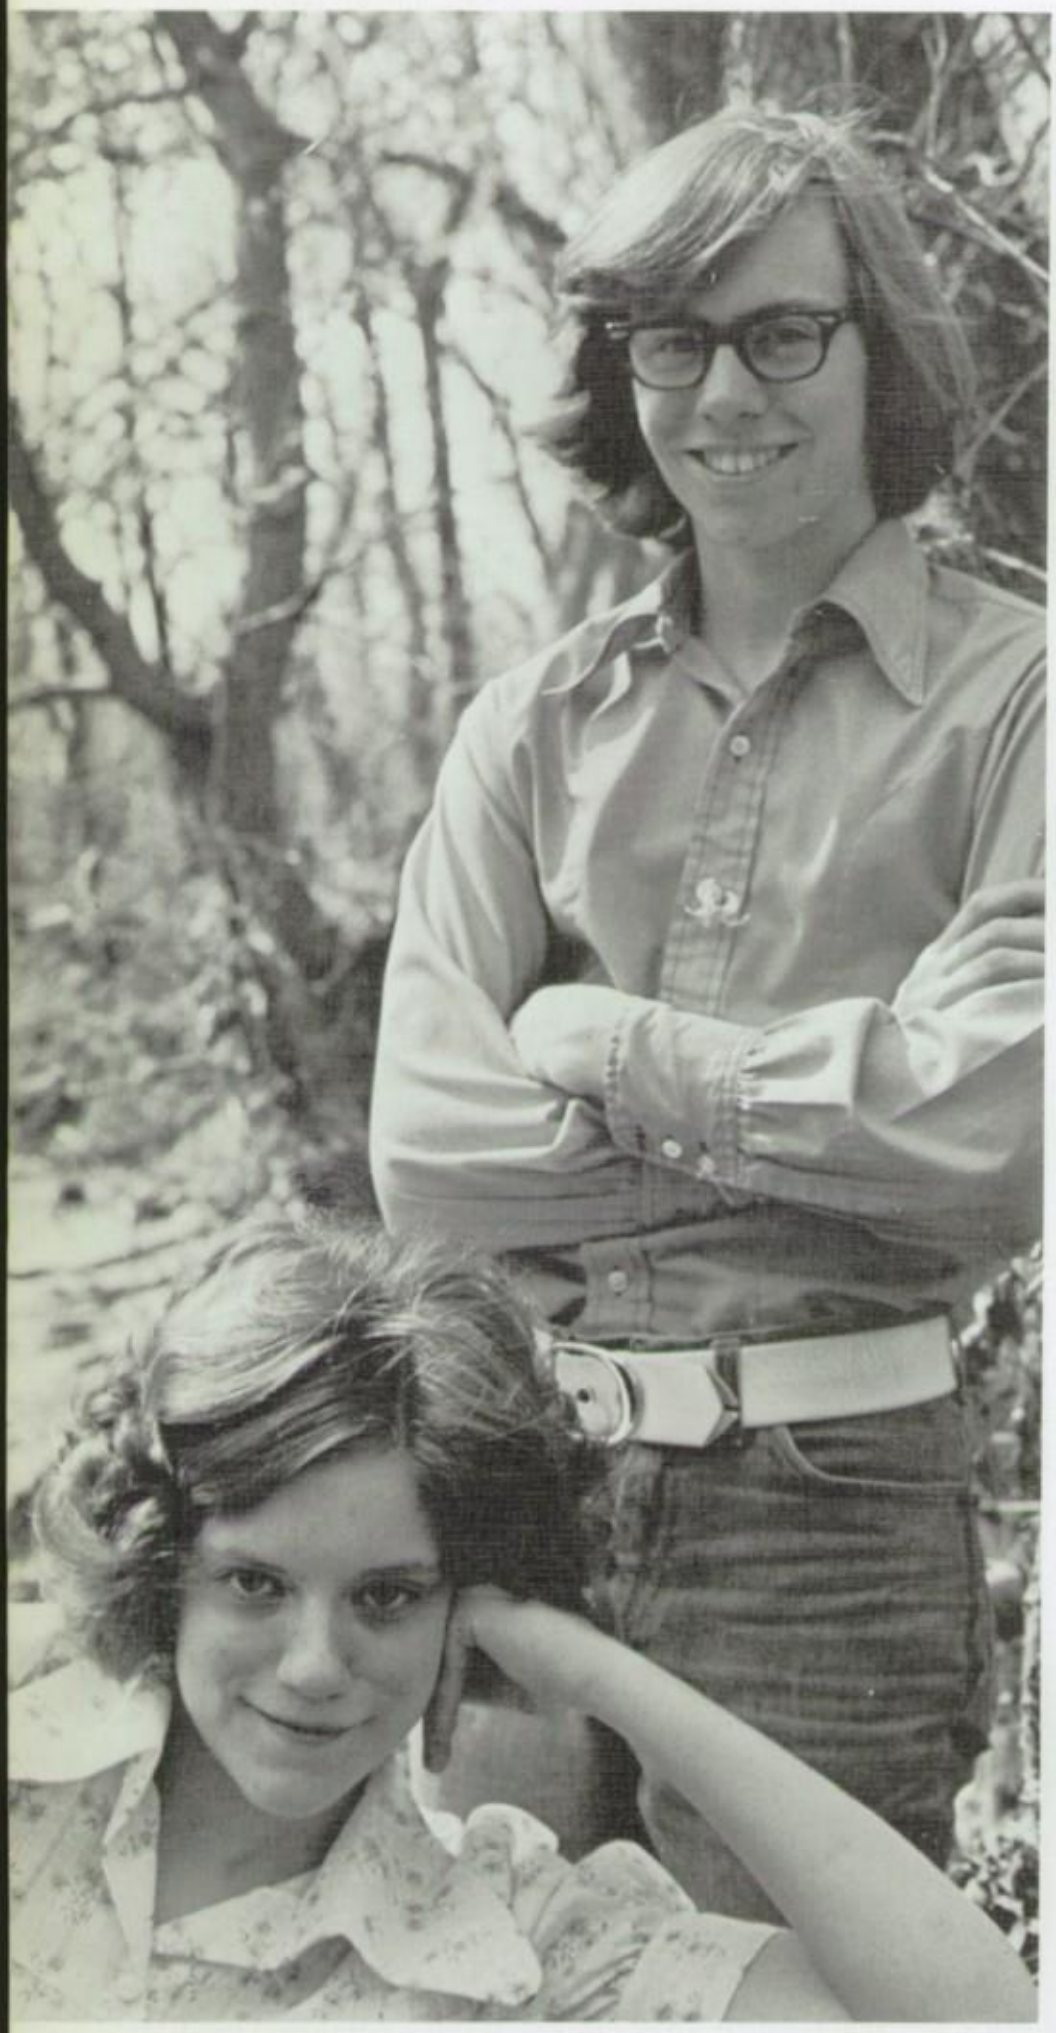
Carol Torczon displayed her motherly instincts at informal initiation by diapering Lisa Schultz's knees.

Officers' facial expressions reveal the solemnity of formal initiation.

Winter Royalty Ball



Reigning over the February 17 ball were Queen Priscilla Mort and King Ed Sunneberg.

Prince and Princess of the royal court were Debbie Buman and Randy Niss.

One of the fringe benefits of sponsoring the Winter Royalty Ball for Mrs. Knipe was this dance with Charlie Hatfield. Music was provided by the "Odyssey."

MAX MILLER CAMERAS, INC—
Lincoln

Attending the royal pair from the senior class were Ron Graham and Denise Droge.

Attending from the class of '74 were Sue Sandusky and Russell Mort.

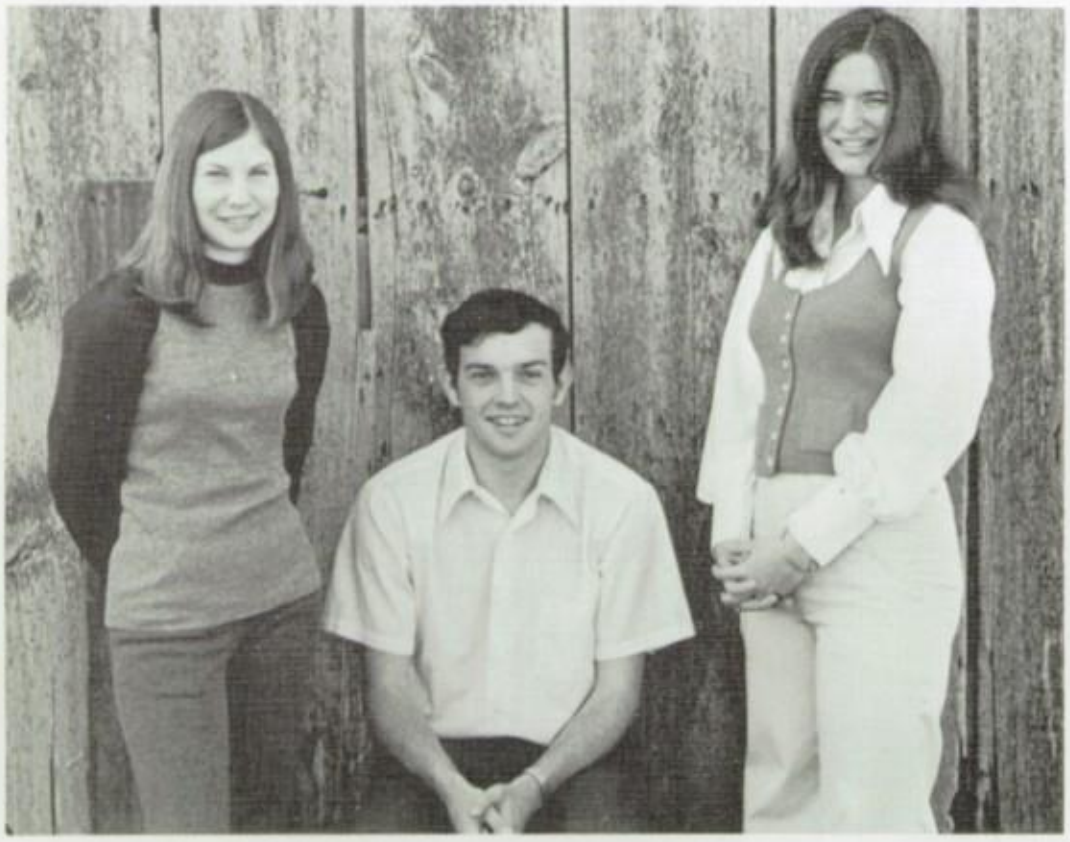
Band



The band officers were: Nancy Bloss, V-Pres.; Charlie Hatfield, Pres.; and Joyce Thiemann, Sec.

This year the band received its first superior rating at district contest since 1970.

The contest was the culmination of a year of rebuilding under a new director, Mr. Bob Patterson. Several parades, added to the regular football half-time shows, made for an active marching season. The concert season, during which the band presented two concerts, was highlighted by the SEBC all-conference band, which PCHS hosted. Guest clinician for the 160 piece select band was Dr. Gilbert Wilson of Peru State College.

Drama Club

The acting ability of the Drama Club, now in its second year of existence, brought recognition to the PCHS drama and speech department. Besides contests, the club had two major productions, "Dracula, Baby" and a night of one-act plays, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Dokken. Troupes of the club presented skits and one-acts for several groups around town. A need was discovered for a constitution and a special committee began work on it. Officers of the club were: Nancy deKoning, Pres.; Bob Koeneke, V-Pres.; Steve Glenn, Sec.; and Charlie Hatfield, Treas.

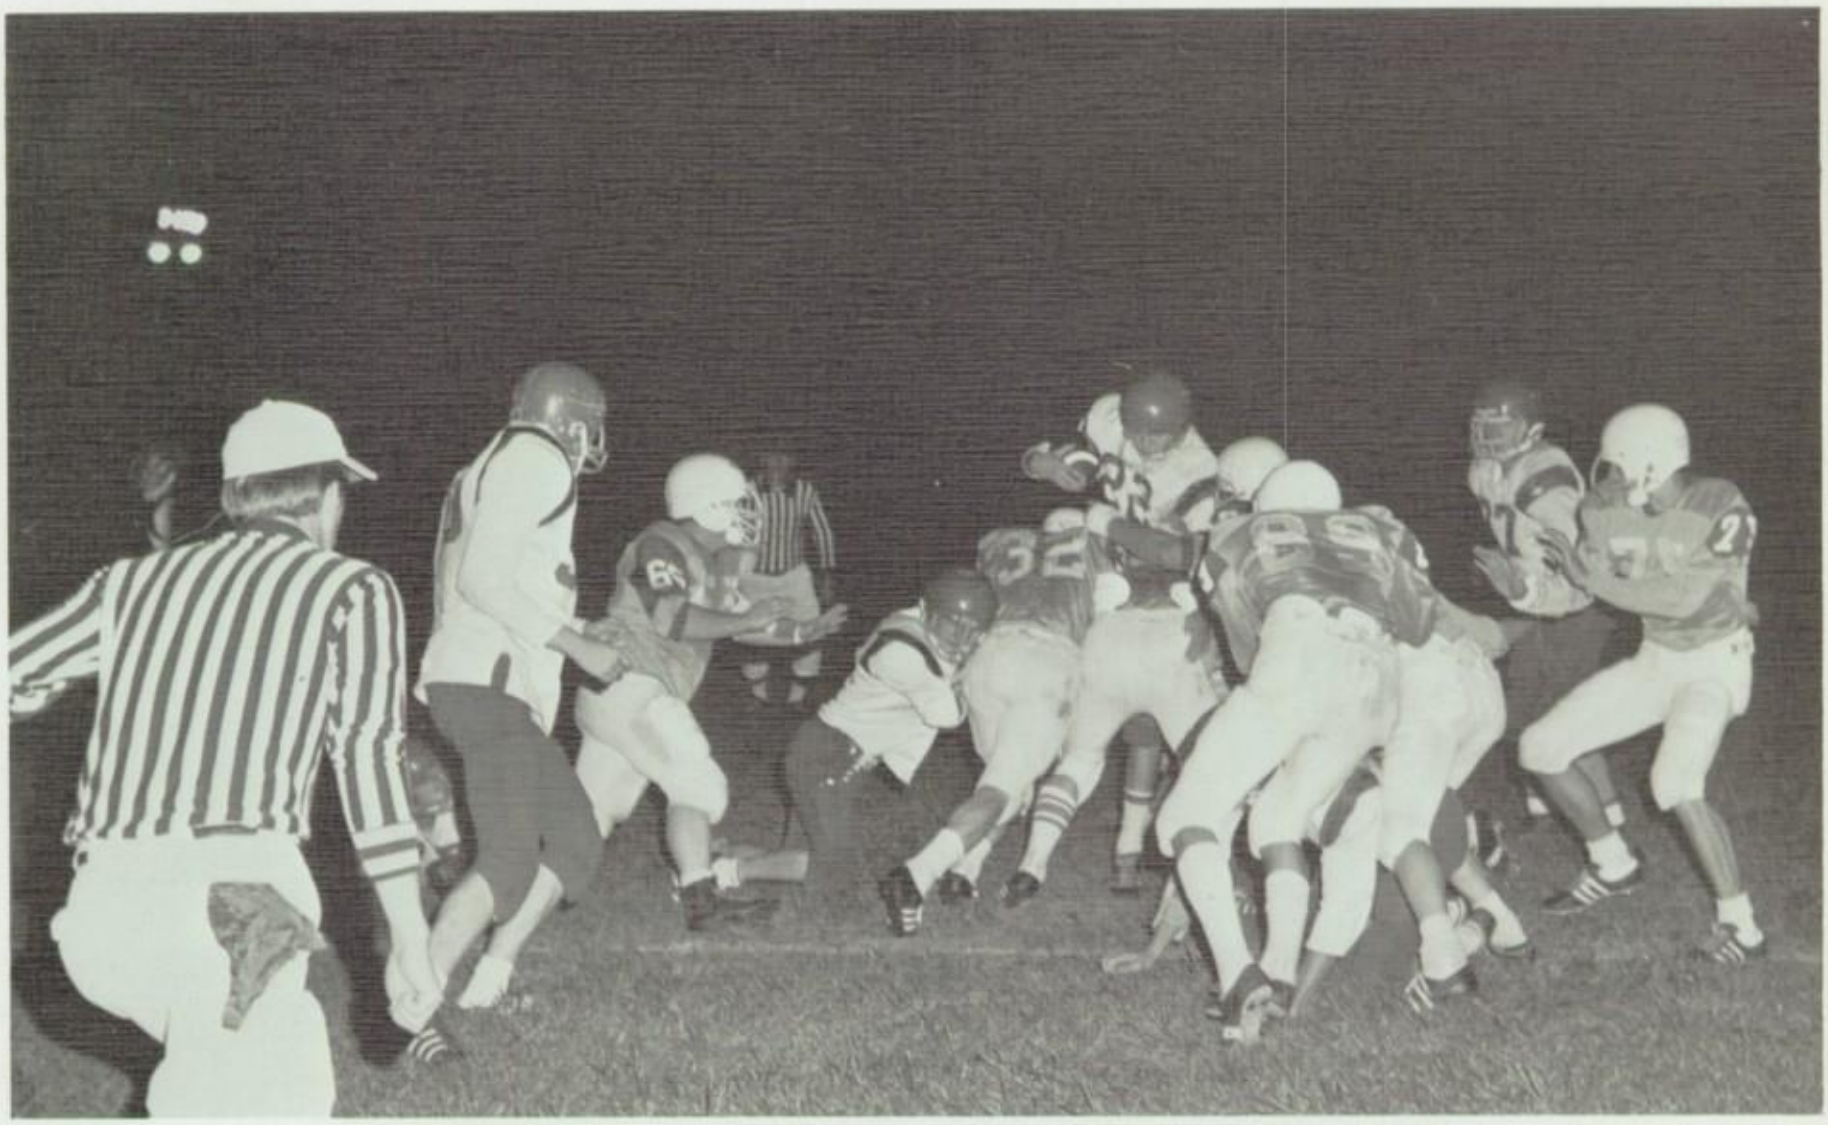
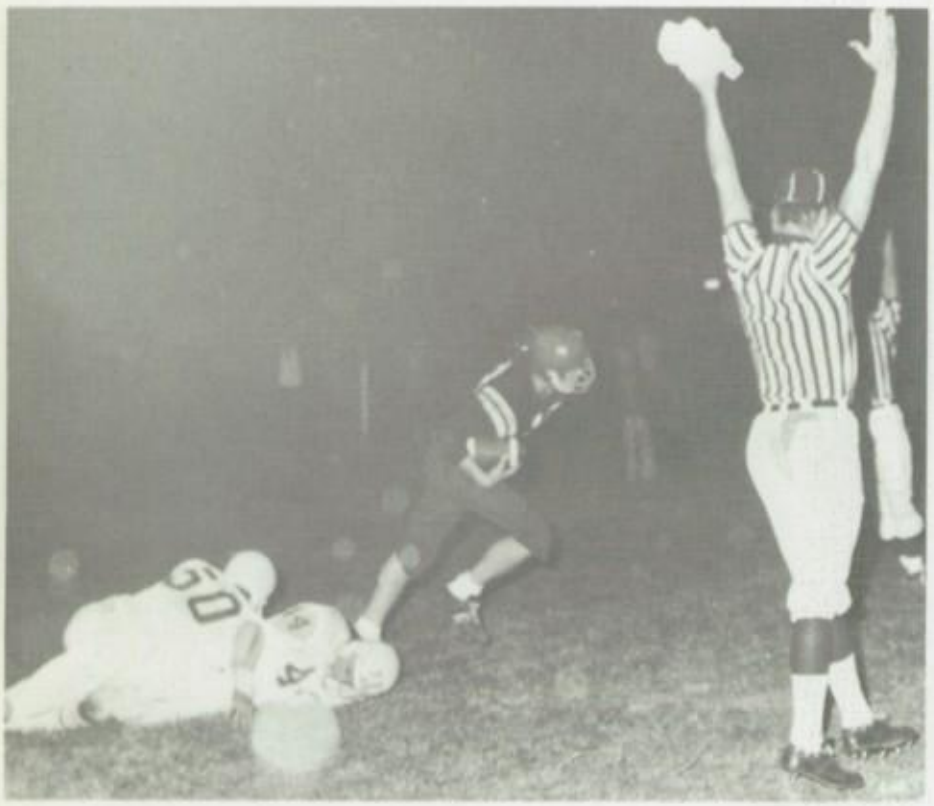
Versatile Kelly Madden worked at many positions on the Indian tribe. His adaptability to the needed job pulled the Indians through tight spots caused by injury.



The offensive unit was the pride of the P.C. squad. Piloted by Howard Borcher the Indians swamped many records with their all-out effort.

Football



Strong-running fullback, Steve Glenn added balance to the Indian running attack averaging over three yards per carry in the 1972-73 season.

Four-year letterman Bob Koeneke was the team captain and backbone of the Indian defensive squad. Bob led the Indians with 158 tackles.

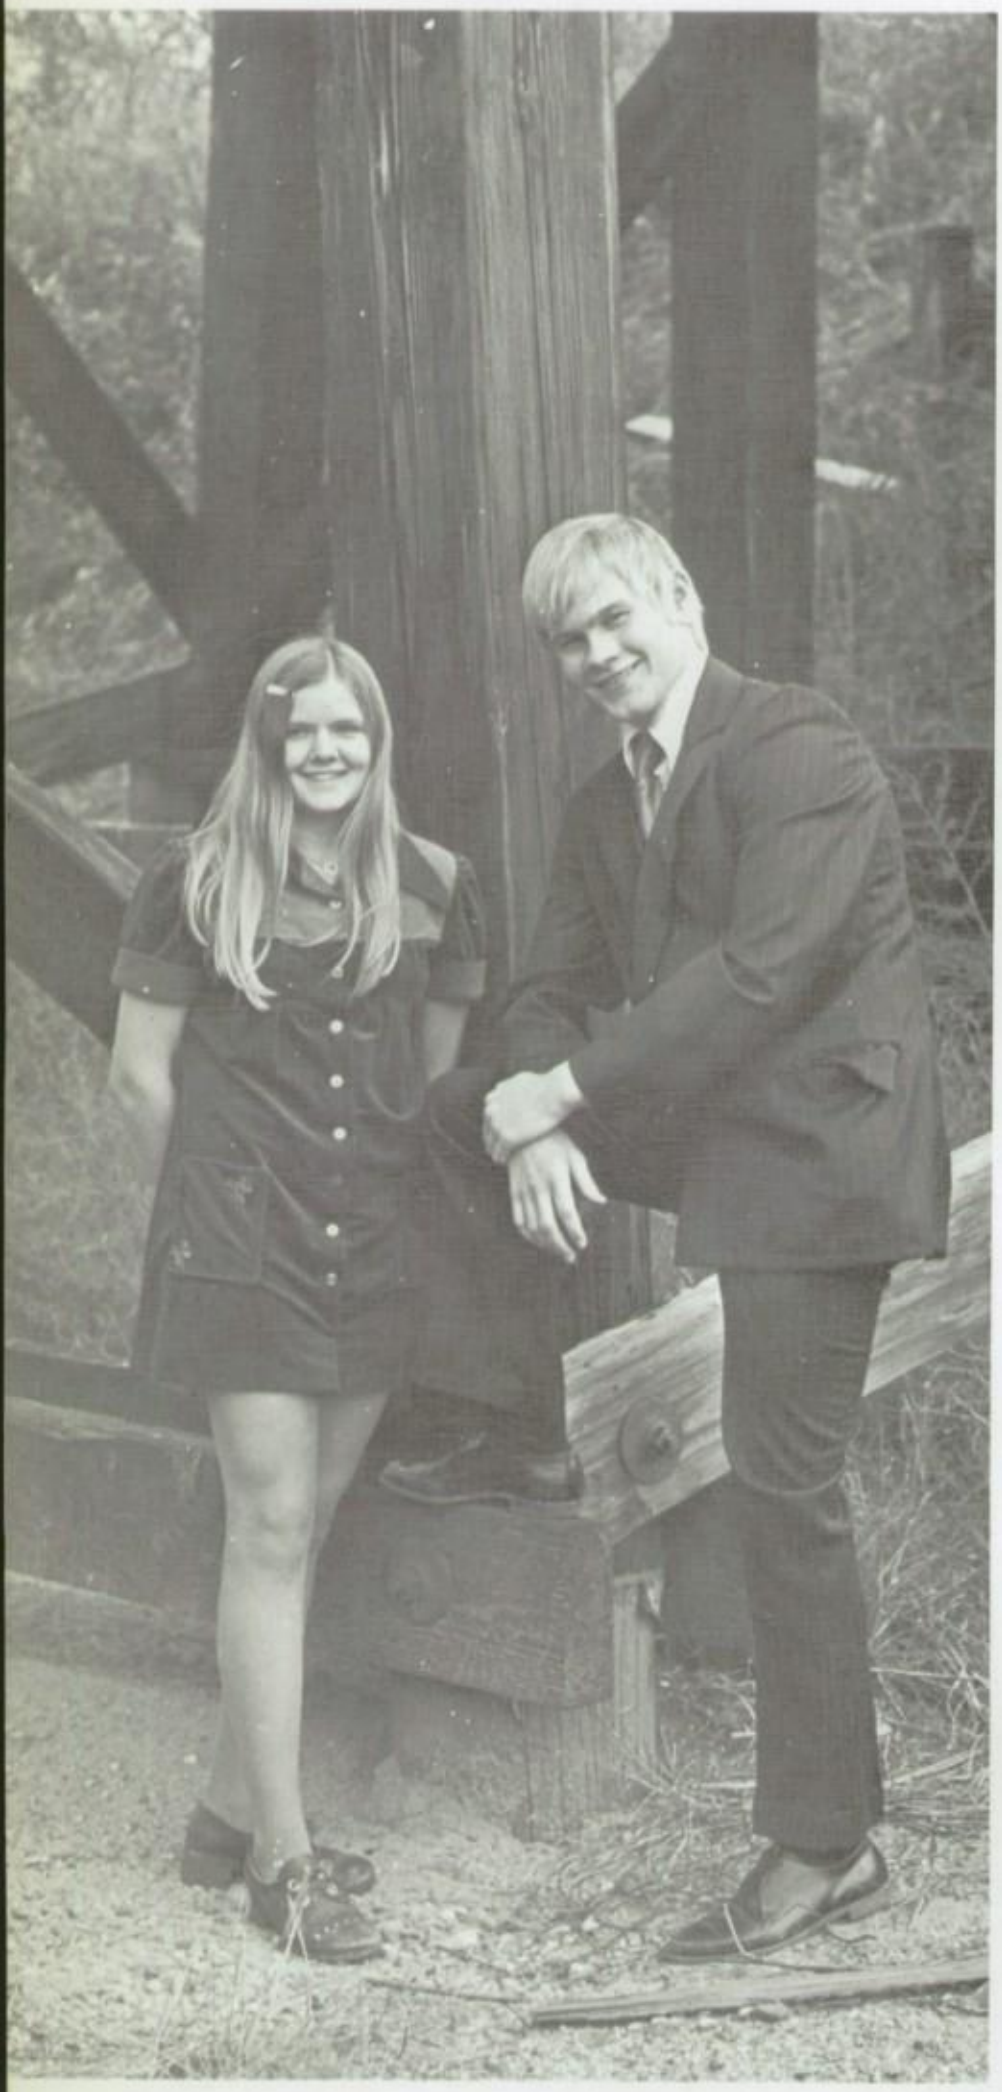
The Indians went through a year of rebuilding on the defensive squad, but their overall performance was satisfactory. Here they are in action against the high-ranked Raiders of Southern whom PC kept to under 100 total yards.

CHRISTENSEN REAL ESTATE

Senior Charlie Hatfield, in his first year on the squad, picked up top pass completion yards and scored 3 touchdowns. Combined with his speed at agile footing, Charlie opened up new dimension in the Indians offense.

Workhorse Doug Heineman had a fine year at the I-back position. Doug led the Indians in scoring and total yards gained. Here he is grinding out another yard against Falls City Sacred Heart.

Homecoming



Reigning monarchs of Homecoming 1972 were Queen Nancy deKoning and King Bob Koeneke.

Princess Debbie Yoble and Prince Terry Kerl assisted the ruling couple at the Oct. 6 homecoming.

Despite the cold weather and a disappointing 26-20 loss to Humboldt, the students and alumni enjoyed the dance in the gym. Music was provided by the "Last Chance."

Attending the royalty from the class of 1973 were Rita Crawford and Charlie Hatfield.

Attendants Patty Boehmer and John Wissler were chosen from the junior class.

Sophomores attending the monarchs were Kelly Brown and Terry Brown.

Karen Karas and Ronald Droge were chosen to be attendants from the class of 1976.

Basketball

The varsity team had a record of 18-5. Members were: KNEELING: Charlie Luedders, Terry Brown, Randy Percival, David Miller, Doug Heineman, Kelly Madden STANDING: John Wissler, Dale Droge, Russell Mort, Steve Glenn, Howard Borcher, Bob Koeneke, Coach Ribble.

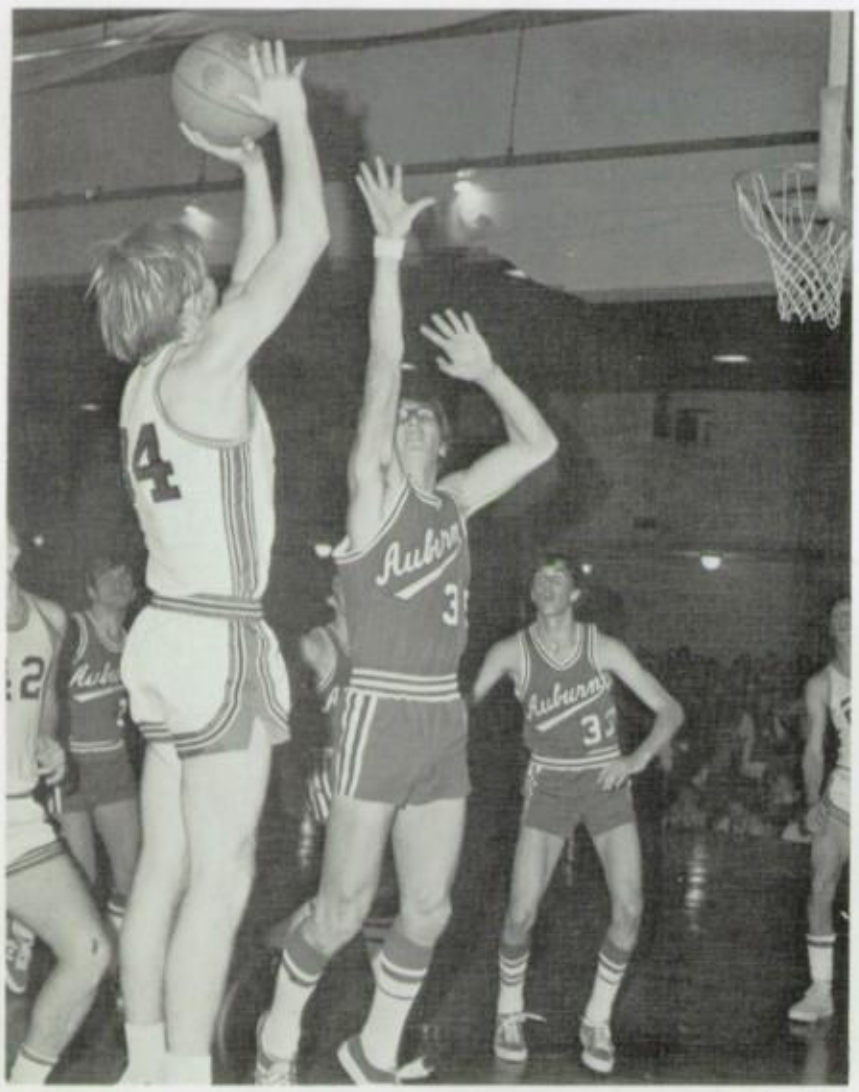
The reserve team had a record of 9-5. Members were: KNEELING: Jeff Lockard, Bruce Dalluge, Donald Ensor, Ronnie Moyer, David Preston, Roger Brezina, Dale Spier, Bob Karas STANDING: Harold Moyer, Dan Rottman, Terry Ganzel, David Rowland, Gary Farwell, John Meyer, Coach Klein.

Although small in number, the freshman-sophomore team showed they had the talent to be big by finishing runner-up in the SEBC Freshman-Sophomore Tournament.

Basketball

The season was highlighted by winning the district tournament and the SEBC championship and tying for the SNC Eastern Division title for the fourth consecutive year.

With 63 stolen balls, all-conference Randy Percival drove in time and again with that simple lay up. He led the team with 119 assists and finished fourth in total scoring.



Giving the inspiration that must come from a co-captain, Bob Koeneke scored 151 points this season against many taller opponents.

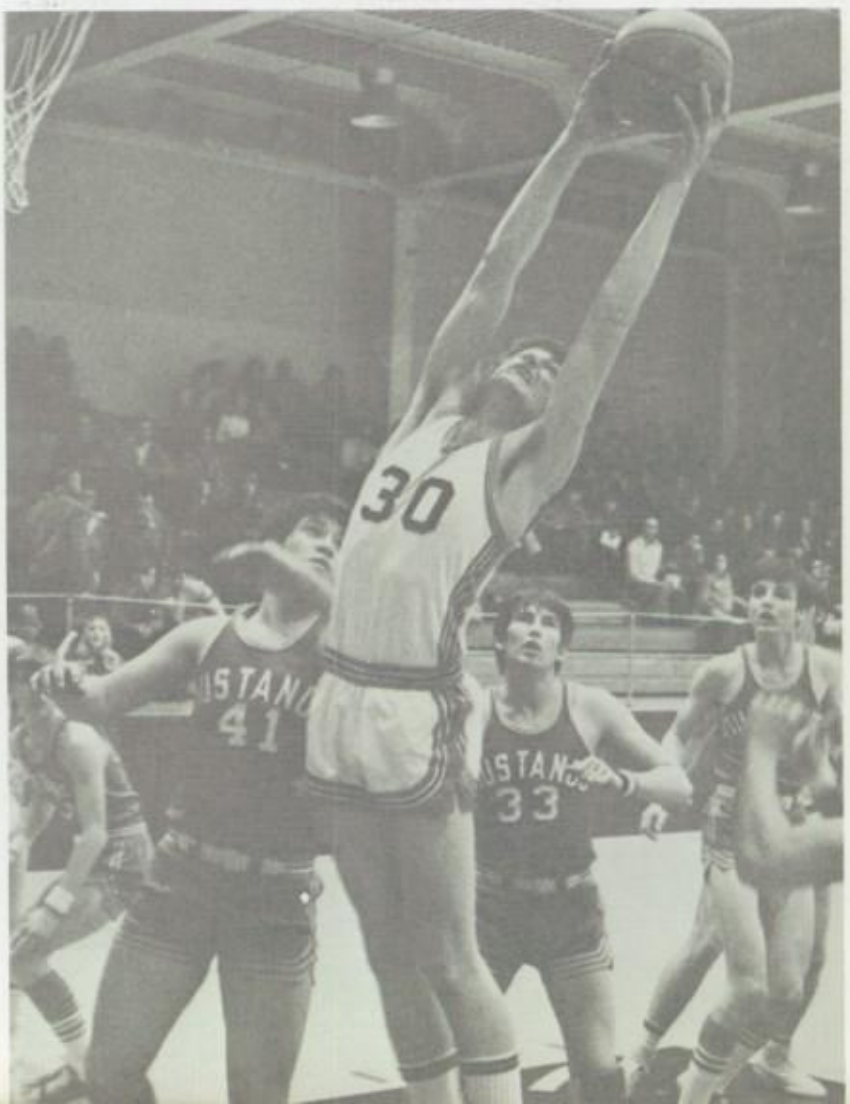
Junior Doug Heineman rallied the Indians many times with his hot hand, sparking them to some essential victories.

The winningest coach in the state, Larry Ribble, completed his fourth year here with a combined PCHS record of 83-13 and two state championships.

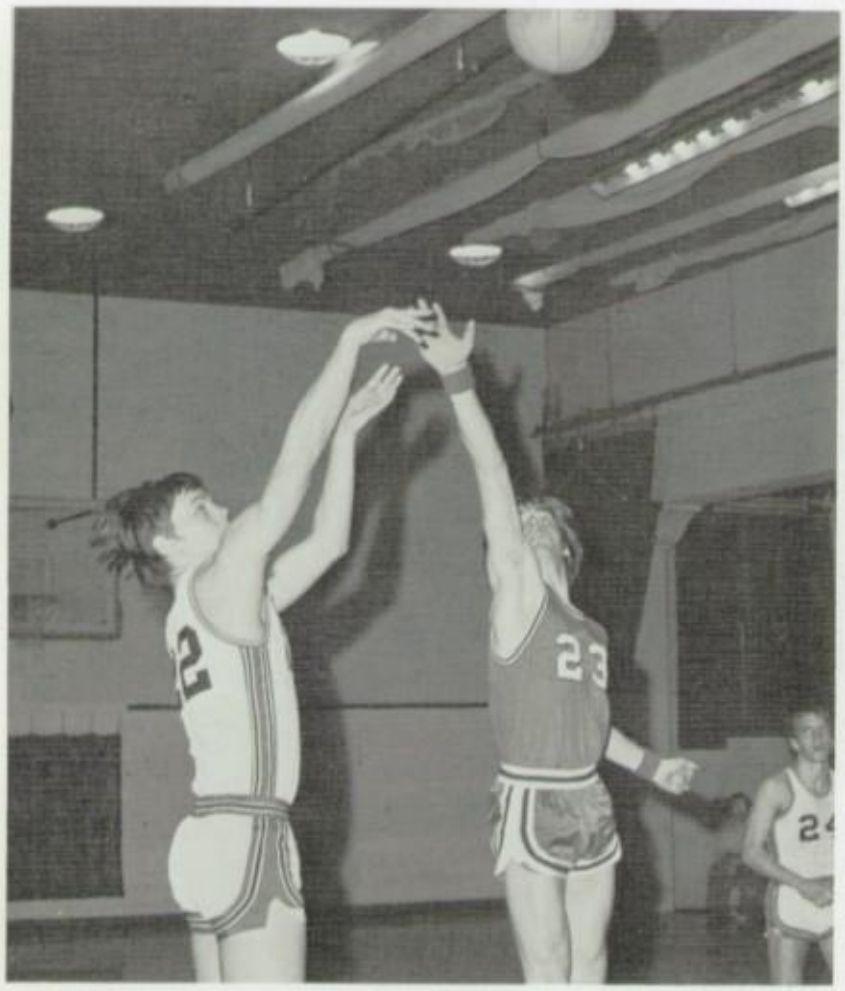
Co-captain Howard Borcher ripped the Southern Raiders with a season high of 28 points.

All-state honorable mention and all-conference Steve Glenn pulled down a team-leading 226 rebounds. For his outstanding leadership, Steve had to be considered the backbone of the team.

Russell Mort stopped Stella cold in their scoring efforts in the SEBC tourney. The Indians held their opponents to less than 40 points 7 times this season, 2 times being against Stella.



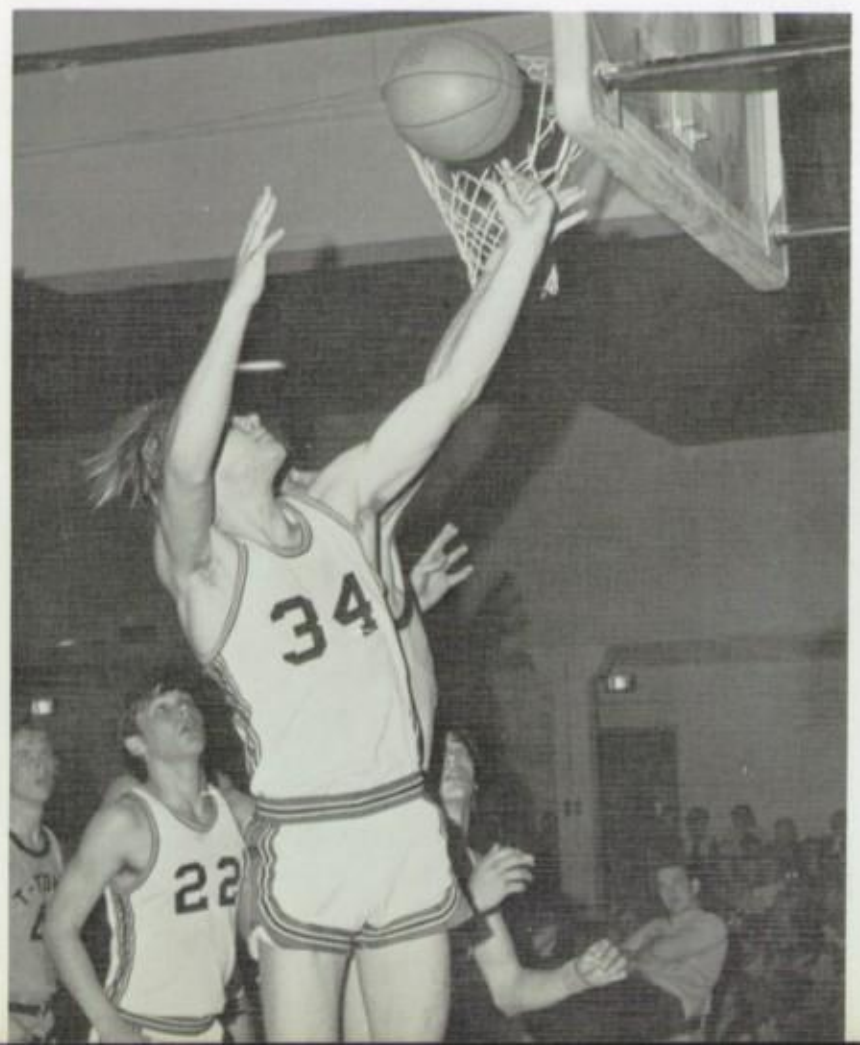
Basketball



All-conference honorable mention Howard Borcher added to the Indian offensive surge with strong outside shooting that put him third in total scoring this season.

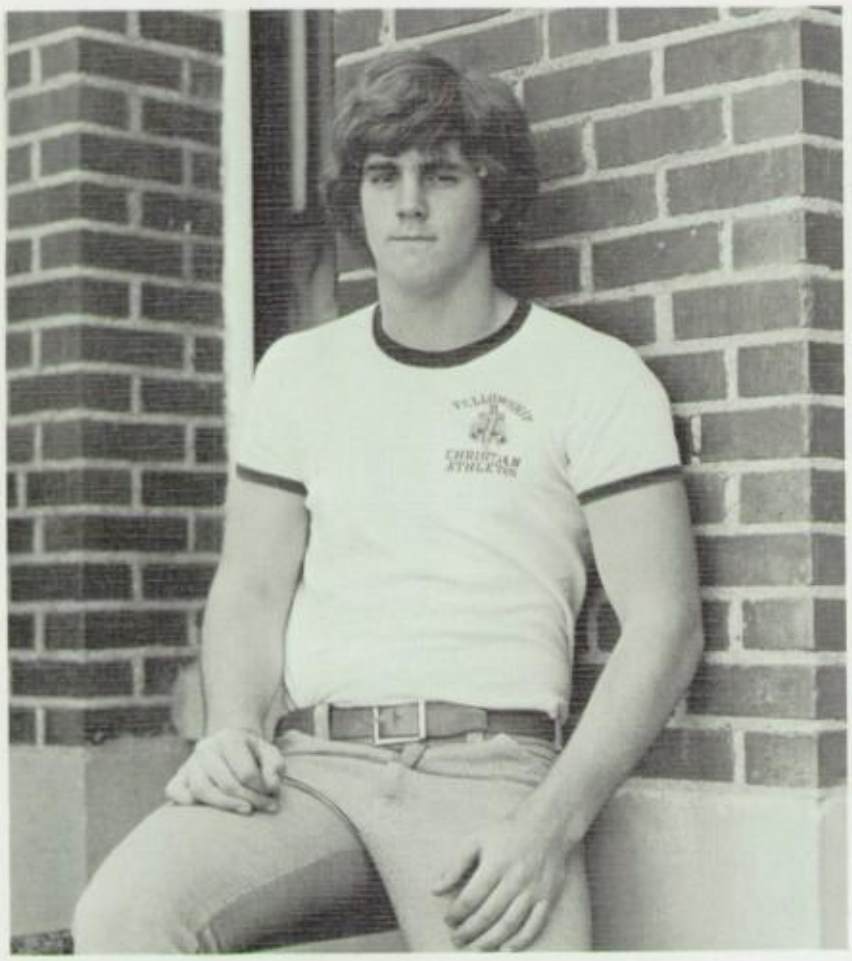
With a total of 341 points and nearly 15 points per game average, Steve Glenn finished 21 of 23 games in double figures.

Bob Koeneke, leading the Indians with 85 offensive rebounds, gave the team that valuable second shot.



Third leading rebounder Russell Mort typified the desire of the 1973 squad. This extra effort makes a good team great.

Track



Steve Glenn put the shot and threw the discus.

Sprinter Charlie Hatfield came back after an early injury and ran the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

The eight-man track team was coached by Larry Brown. The team was too small to place well, but individuals made good showings.

880 yard runner Richard Carmichael also ran on the two mile relay team.

Roger Tiller ran the quarter mile.

Track

Kelly Madden ran the 100 yard dash, triple jumped, and ran on the two mile relay team.

Mile runner Bob Koeneke was also a member of the two mile relay team.

David Miller set a school record of 10:44:4 in the two mile run and placed first at the district meet.

Long jumper Russell Mort also triple jumped, high jumped, and ran on the two mile relay team.

Golf

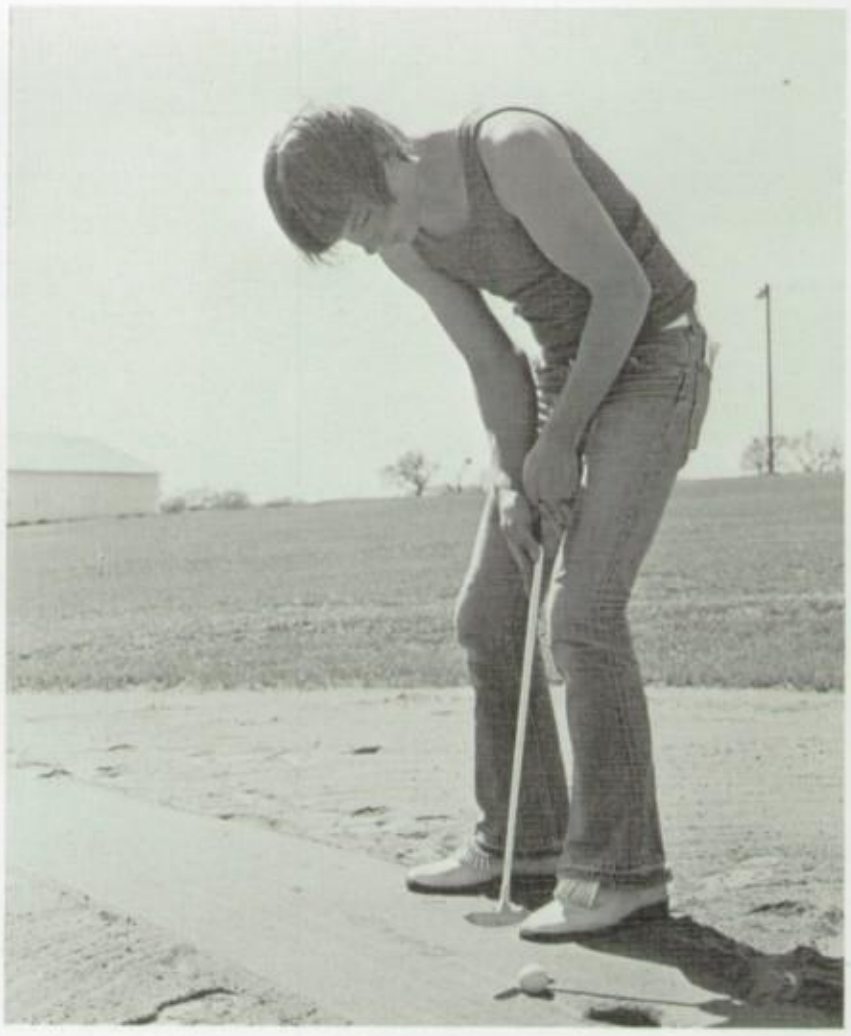
Looking across the first green at the barns, one can understand why the PCHS golf team was never defeated on their home course.

Golf

Alternating at the number one spot, Scott Stewart tied for fourteenth at the state meet.



Fourth man on the state foursome, and throughout the season, was Ric Hofmann.

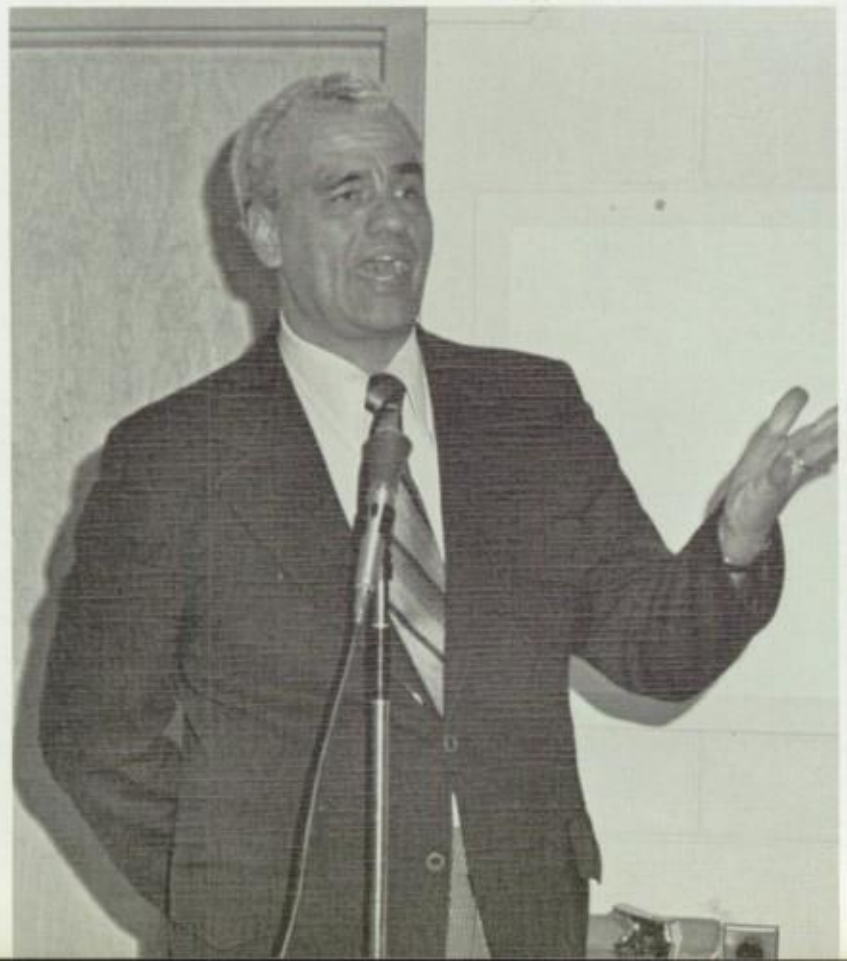
The number one golfer most of the season was Phil Johnson who headed the foursome at state.

The new addition to the varsity, Mark Ritchie, played at the third position and attended the state meet.

P.C. Club

FIRST ROW: A. Thomas, C. Snyder, M. Turnbull, R. Carmichael, S. Stewart, T. Kerl, R. Niss, R. Tiller, C. Luedders, C. Hatfield, D. Heineman, J. Snyder, M. Ritchie, K. Madden, B. Dalluge. BACK ROW: P. Johnson, R. Hofmann, T. Brown, B. Koeneke, R. Percival, B. Price, H. Borcher, R. Howard, S. Glenn, R. Mort, D. Droge, J. Wissler, K. Benson, G. Farwell, D. Miller.

The speaker for the annual athletic banquet, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, was Bob Erickson, Doane basketball coach. After some attention-catching stories of the local talent at Doane he spoke of the necessary attributes of an athlete.



The P.C. Club attempted to have a basketball game with "Johnny Rodgers' All-Stars," however the Big Red star failed to show, causing his popularity to plummet. The officers of the P.C. Club were M. Turnbull, Sec.; J. Wissler, Sergeant-at-Arms; B. Koeneke, Pres.; T. Kerl, V-Pres.; C. Hatfield, Treas.

Girls' Track

The girl tracksters had a good season. Members were: FRONT ROW: A. Brown, M. Stephens, D. Yoble, G. Perkins, W. Gyhra, J. Farwell, N. Rowland, R. Crawford, J. Stephens, C. Kroemer BACK ROW: D. Buman, J. Percival, K. Brown, J. Kline, J. Thiemann, S. Sandusky, D. Whitney, D. Thomas, M. Rogers, S. Lockard, Coach Ribble.

All spring sports suffered from the unusually wet weather, with many meets being cancelled. Precipitation for the first four months of 1973 was 7.99 inches above normal.

Jeanne Farwell was a consistent point-getter for the team.

Speedster Wendy Gyhra consistently placed well throughout the season.

Kelly Brown soared to a new high jump record of 4'5" this year.

Jean Kline displays the form that won second in the district meet. Due to an ankle injury, she was unable to attend the state meet.

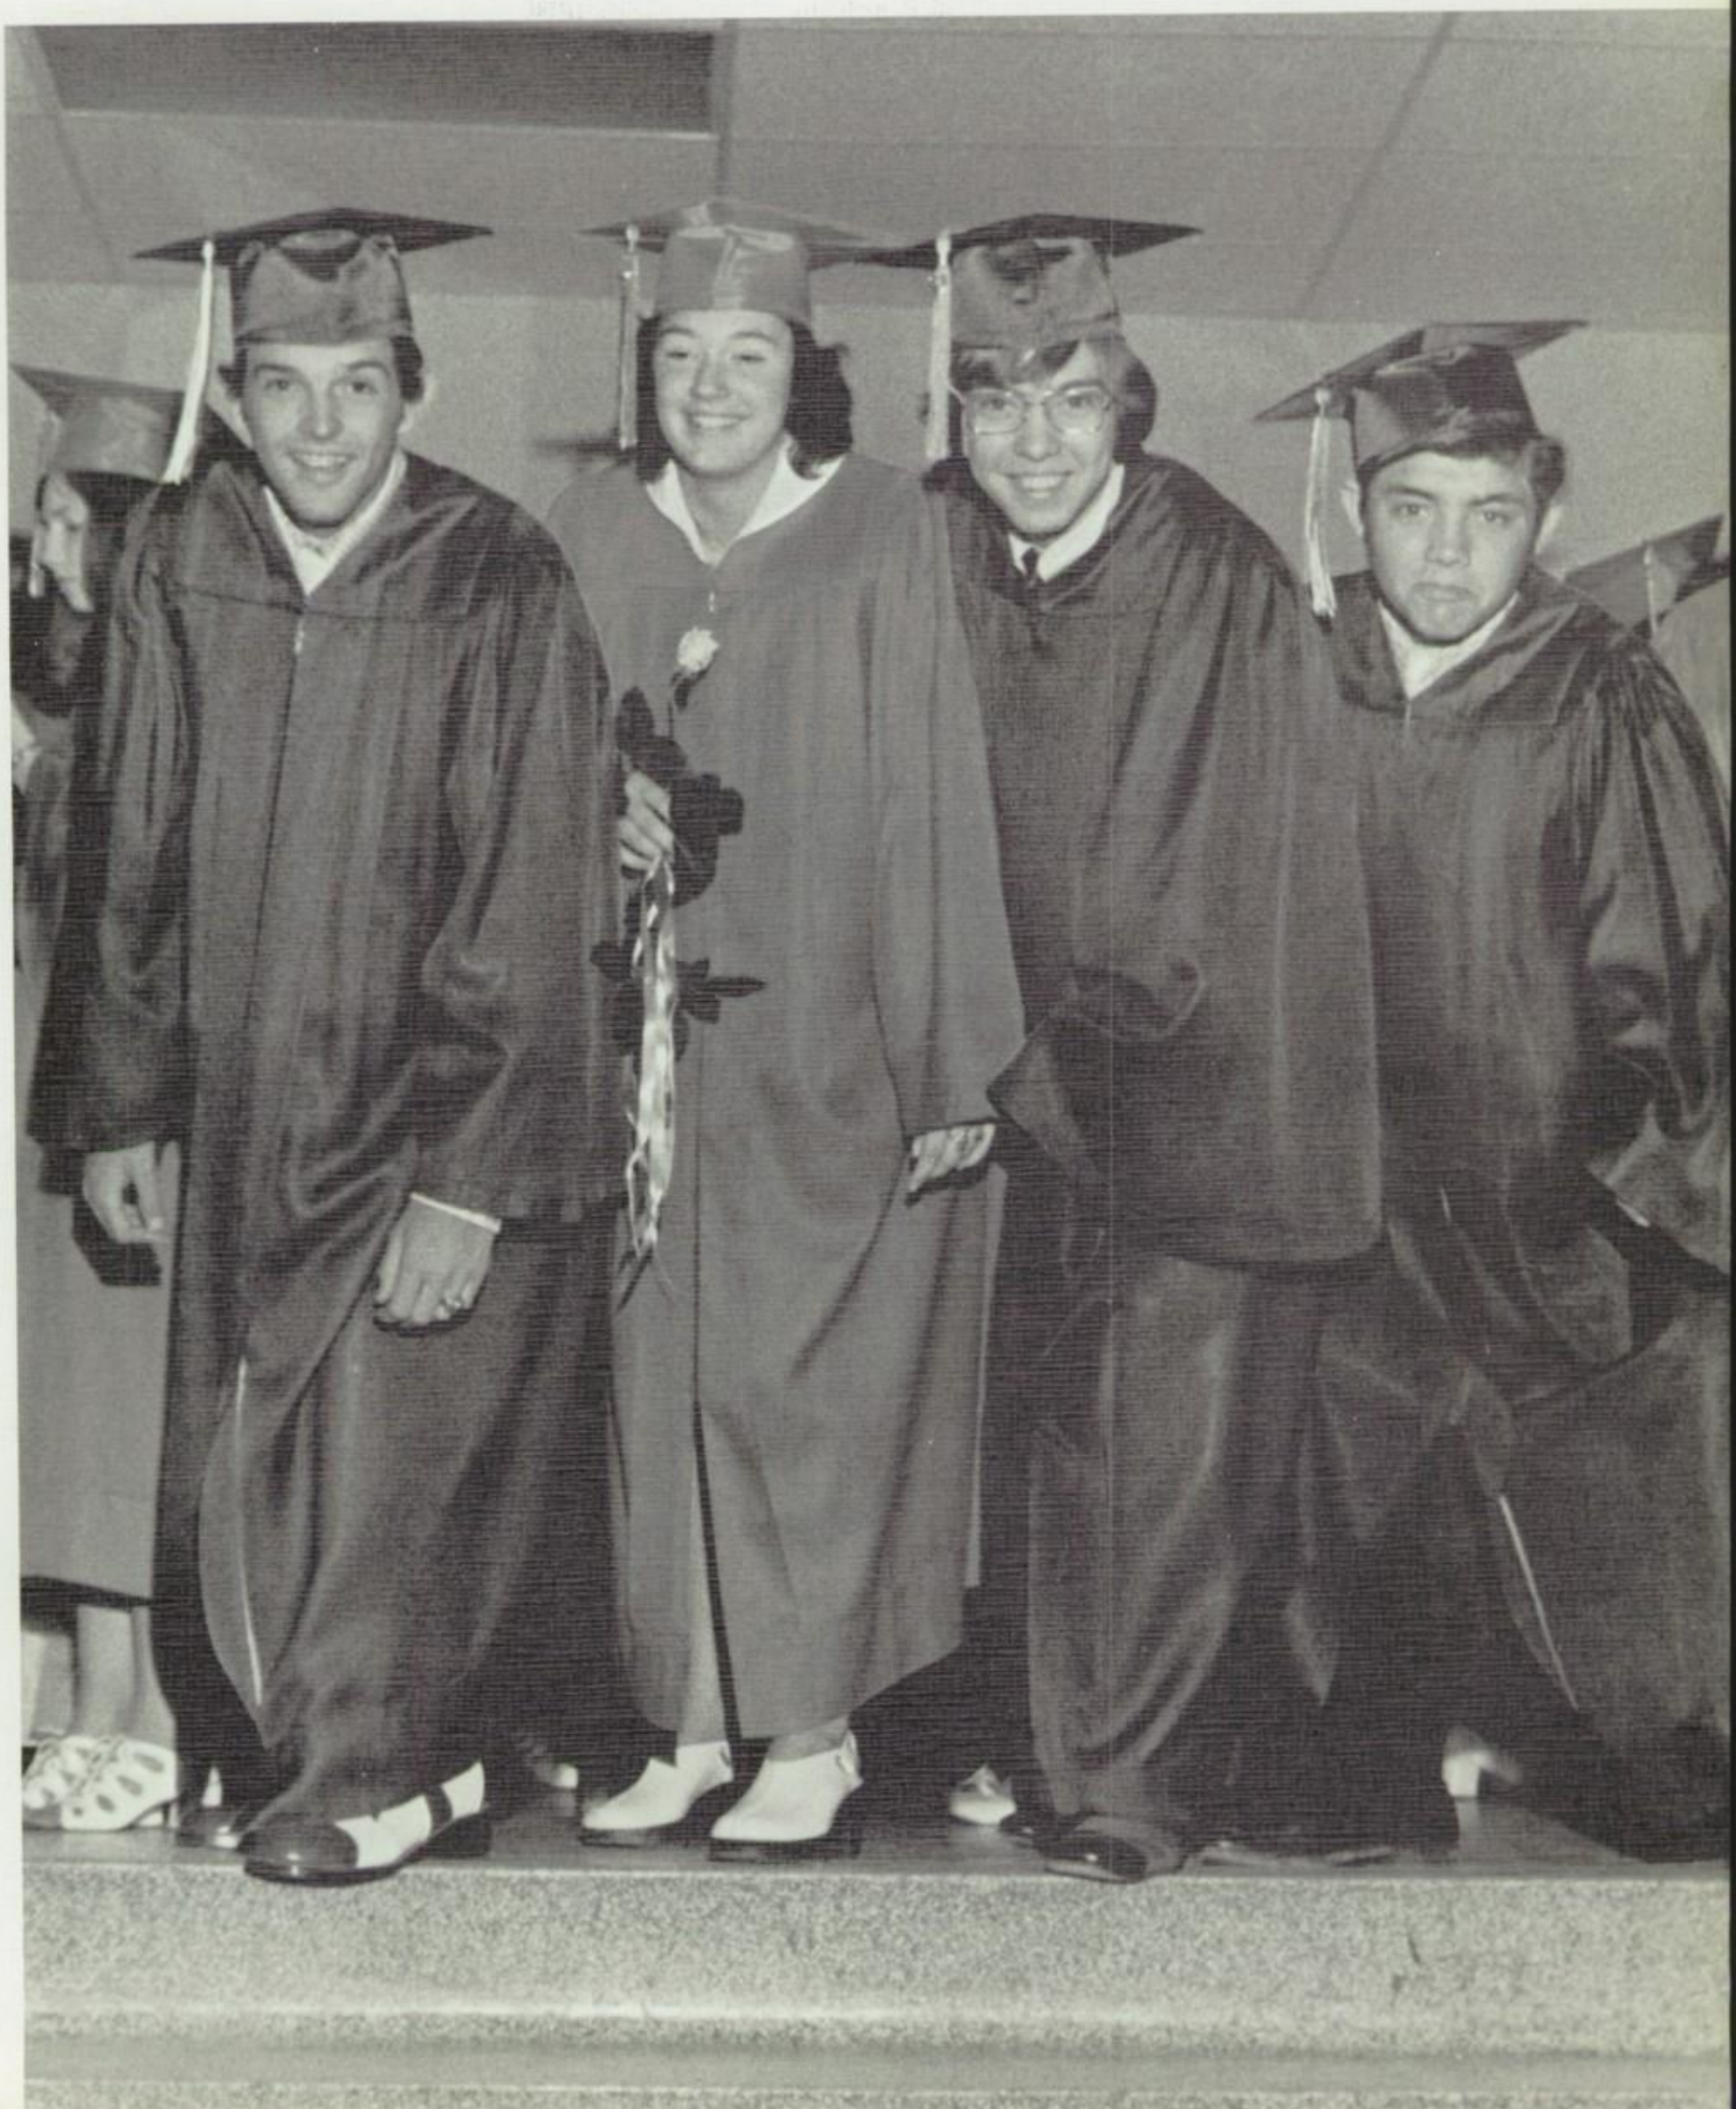
Marianne Stephens threw the discus with much success this season.

Girls' Golf

Judy Collar patiently waits her turn as Ann Sawyer focuses her attention on the first green. Girls' golf was a semi-official sport with no meets scheduled, but with intra-squad competition.

Members of the girls' golf team were: Dineen Matthews, Julie Dageford, Ann Sawyer, Sue Chittick, Judy Collar, Coach Max Martin.

FINAL EPISODES



Banquet And Prom

Scott Stewart and Nancy Bloss dance on the crowded floor to one of the combo's faster numbers.

Junior girls concentrate their efforts on a poster announcing the theme, "Dancing in the Moonlight."

Beth Kerl cautiously refills a tea glass as one of her duties as a waitress.

Waiter and waitress Terry Brown and Marianne Stephens exhibit some monkey-shines in a skit.

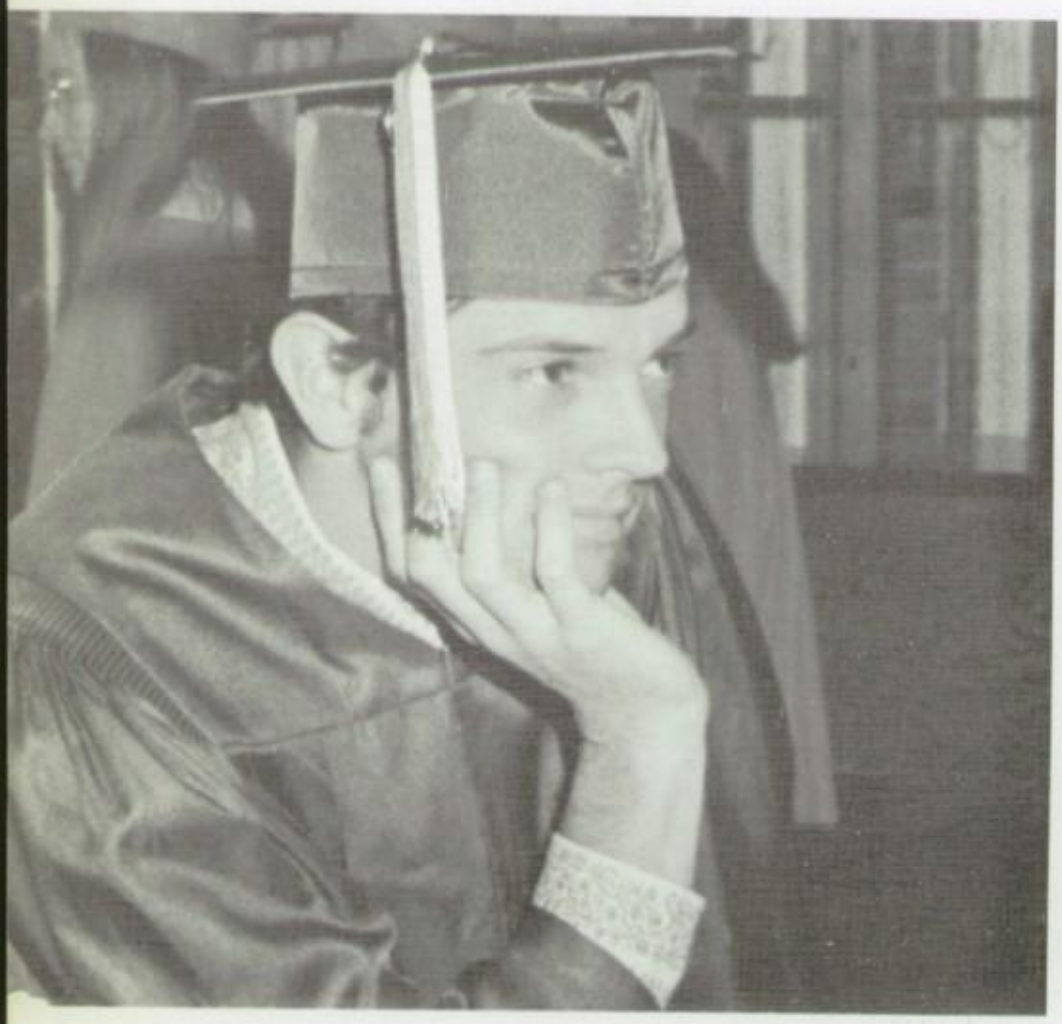
"Twinkle Toes" Ganzel shows his stuff.

The juniors appear to need a bit of assistance in assembling the spotlight.

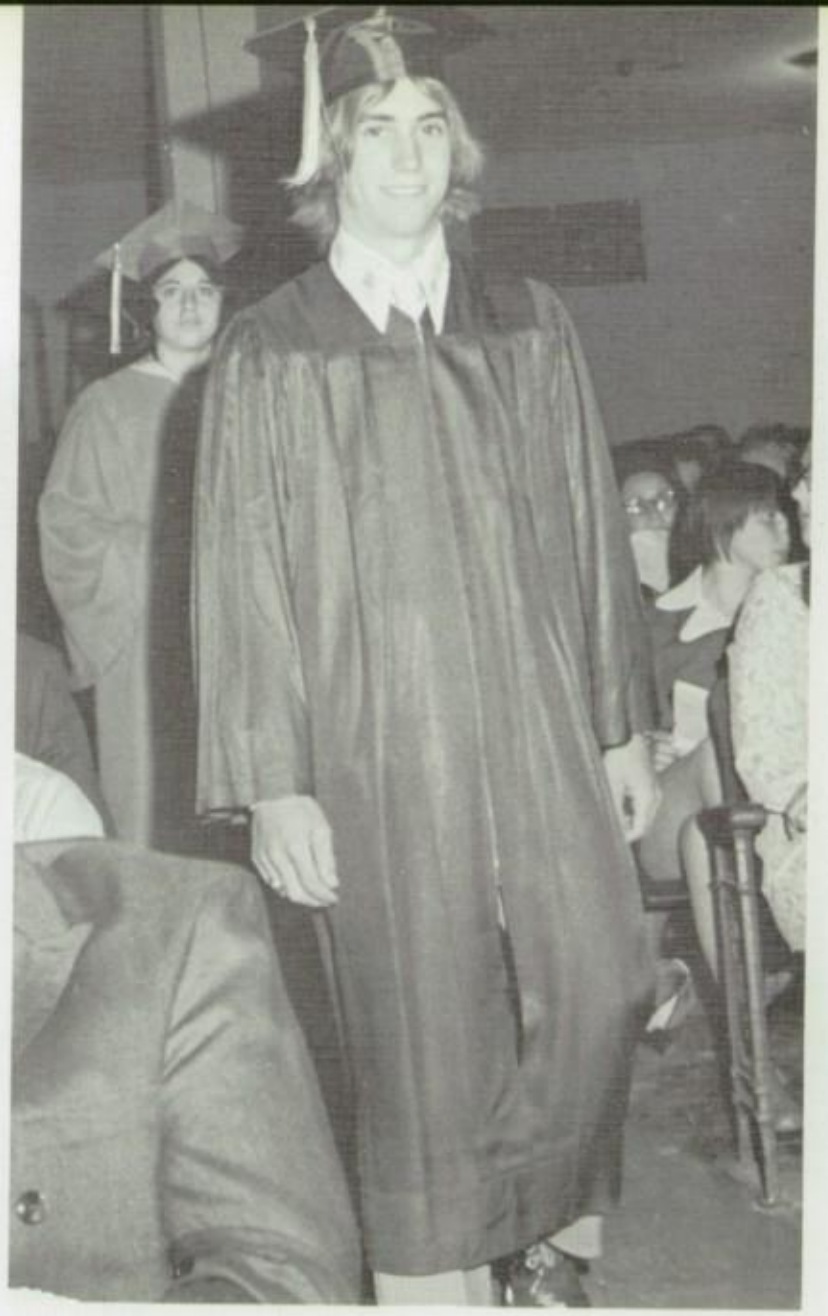
The "Together" provided the music for this year's prom, held for the first time at the VFW Club in Pawnee City.

Julie Dageford samples the pop served by the junior mothers during the dance. Several mothers also assisted in preparing the banquet.

Commencement



Charlie Hatfield contemplates the meaning of graduation.



Mark Sunneberg walks down the aisle while Sue Warnke plays the organ, replacing the traditional band. Traditional songs were replaced by "Colour My World" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring." Junior ushers were Julie Dageford and Marvin Hinrichsen.

Julia Sharpe received the Cooperating School Scholarship from Peru State College.

The Pawnee County Home Extension 1973 Home Economics Scholarship was awarded to Marcia Karas.

Nancy assists Julie as both await commencement ceremonies. This year the boys wore blue gowns and the girls wore red.

Rev. James Green, pastor of the Fairbury Presbyterian Church, delivered the commencement address, "Listen Carefully," to an overflow crowd.

Commencement ended the successful singing career of the senior girls' triple trio. They sang "One Little Candle" at baccalaureate and "Today" at commencement.

The top 10% of the class and their four-year grade averages were: Bill Latza, 94.08; Marie Warnke, 92.65; Priscilla Mort, 94.22; Rita Crawford, 92.92; and Ron Graham, 93.33.

Commencement

One-year University of Nebraska Regents Scholarship alternates were Charlie Luedders, Priscilla Mort, Rita Crawford, and Marie Warnke. Bill Latza received the first four-year Regents to come from Pawnee City.

Jeanne Farwell and Joyce Thiemann received Butler Scholarships to Doane College.

Charlie Luedders was chosen as a second alternate to the Air Force Academy.

Designated as an alternate for an Air Force ROTC Scholarship was Phil Johnson.

Marie Warnke was awarded the Board of Trustees Scholarship from Peru State College.

Goodbye,
my youth.
I have reached the frontier of adulthood.
I cannot think that this time in my life is a boundary.
For a boundary stops men.
A frontier beckons them on.
So I shall go on expectantly to a new world.
Having been structured by my past,
I am the architect of my own future.
Yes,
I shall go on,
rejoicing in living and having won.
